India's finest advancements in beauty innovation were honoured at the Cosmoprof India Awards & Networking Night on December 4, on the occasion of the sixth edition of Cosmoprof India.

Organised in partnership with the global trend agency Beautystreams (<https://www.premiumbeautynews.com/en/longevity-the-cosmetics-industry,25439>), the competition honoured the most outstanding products showcased among exhibiting companies, highlighting innovation, new technologies, excellence and the latest trends across six categories, ranging from supply chain solutions to branded finished products.

A total of 242 products were submitted, with four finalists selected in each category. An international panel of experts and leaders from the personal care and cosmetics industry evaluated the submissions 1 ([/en/cosmoprof-and-beautystream-award,26760#nb1)].
